

HIGH ALTITUDE
VINEYARDS

Colomé
DESDE 1831

ESTATE MALBEC

Wines of distinction have been crafted at Colomé in the Upper Calchaquí Valley in the Salta region since 1831.

Four estate vineyards are blended to achieve the finest expression of Malbec. As the backbone of the blend, Colomé vineyard (65%) surrounds the winery at 2300 metres and lends complexity and weight. El Arenal vineyard (25%) at 2700 metres gives elegance and freshness to the blend. La Brava vineyard (5%) sits at 1700 metres and yields intense ripe fruit. Altura Máxima vineyard (5%) at 3111 metres and the highest vineyard in the world, gives floral and mineral notes with fine grain tannins to the assemblage.

Higher altitudes offer much more sun, much less UV protection and produce a thicker skinned grape that delivers a more robust taste with fresh acidity to support it.

VARIETY: 100% Malbec

VINTAGE: 2016

VINEYARDS: Upper Calchaquí Valleys, Salta, Argentina

HARVEST: March - April 2016

AGEING: 15 months in French oak barrels, 6 months in bottle

ALCOHOL: 14.9% by vol.

ACIDITY: 5.8g/l

PH: 3.8

TASTING NOTES

Bright and intense in color with beautiful aromas of blackberries, red fruits and exotic floral notes, this wine delivers aromatics that entice the senses. A full lush entry of ripe and rich black fruit surrounds spiced oak notes and hints of pepper. Fresh acidity supports big, bold tannins and wonderful complexity.