Smart Buys AMALAYA 2009 89 Points

(Very good: a wine with special qualities)

“This enticing red displays a wide range of mint, damson plum, crushed blackberry and mesquite notes, all offset by tangy acidity and a long, mineral-tinged finish. Long and silky. A fun drink. Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah and Tannat. Drink now.”

Colomé Torrontés 2010

Highly Recommended

“Torrontés can be a ‘one-glass only’ wine but you could enjoy a bottle of this; no sickly characters, just elegant fruit and fresh, vibrant floral notes.”

Amalaya 2009

70% Malbec, 20% Cabernet, 5% Tannat, 5% Syrah

Highly Recommended

“Intense, vibrant black fruit and spice. The creamy oak adds complexity to the finish.”

AMALAYA

2009

“The last Argentinean wine I’ll mention in this column wasn’t tasted on my tour. However, this was frankly one of the best samples I’ve received all year at its price point. Amalaya’s Red Wine from Calchaqui boasted roasted coffee, blackberry and red cherry on the nose, while bright strawberry and black pepper and raspberry helped focus the long, deep, dark, chocolaty finish. A very fair price rounds off this exceptional value.”
