2012 Altura Maxima Malbec

96 Points

“...The name Altura Maxima means, of course, maximum altitude. The first commercial release is this 2012 Altura Maxima Malbec which has a heady, very ripe and showy nose that is extremely powerful, open and intense with aromas reminiscent of violets, peach, gunpowder and something like malt whisky (earthy, organic, with notes of peat?). The nose is complex and changes by the minute, developing nuances of honey and pollen, more flowers, malt and peat. There are also spices, nutmeg, wild herbs and more and more flowers with time in the glass. ...”
